POLOPALOOZA

Simon and Elina Garber hosted their inaugural PoloPalooza event recently at their private polo field in Wellington. The exciting Polo exhibition match between competing teams SLS Jets and Yellow Cab Co. benefited the Boys and Girls Club of Palm Beach County. The Garber family (father and sons) played alongside celebrity players Nicolas Roldan, Juan Velarde and Martin Estrada. Additional highlights included an authentic Argentinean Asado, signature cocktails from Bacardi USA, fine wines by Makia Estate, gourmet catering by Rockstar Catering, Marky's Caviar tasting, Mya Handmade Cigars, auction and raffle items and trophy ceremony presented by Craig Dickmann, General Manager of Hamilton Jewelers.

"I am so thrilled I won the Le Rosey summer camp auction item. My granddaughter, Emma, will now have the opportunity to benefit from this unique experience," said Palm Beach resident Jane Holzer.

Over 300 guests from the Wellington equestrian/polo community and Palm Beach island, along with 50 children from the Boys and Girls Club of Palm Beach County, were in attendance at the fun-filled family event with activities for all ages including a special exotic animal presentation by McCarthy's Animal Wildlife and gifts courtesy of Aristokids.

"I can't thank the Garber family enough for the PoloPalooza event they hosted to benefit the Boys & Girls Clubs," said Mary O'Connor, President and CEO of Boys & Girls Clubs of Palm Beach County. "The entire event was wonderful and our young people are still talking about how much fun they had watching the polo game, eating to their hearts content, and seeing all the different exotic and fun farm animals. We feel very fortunate to have such a terrific family among our friends."

A special thank you to event sponsors and supporters including Charles Evans Foundation, Elite Traveler Magazine, Hamilton Jewelers, Bacardi USA, Institut Le Rosey, Marky's Caviar, Makia Estate Wines, Socialite Magazine, MYA Cigars, Rockstar Catering, Laura Brunetti Gallery, 251 Palm Beach, The Omphoy Ocean Resort, Chick-Fil-A and Aristokids.
